Subject: Thank Sen. Wilhelm for Stopping Closure of Luster Heights

Dear Charlie Wishman,

Last night, the Iowa Senate passed a sweeping Government Reorganization bill, SF2088. This bill contained many of the ideas that AFSCME members had to make government run more efficiently. During that debate, Senator Mary Jo Wilhelm sponsored an amendment (S5018) that stopped the closing of one of our state's prison facilities, Luster Heights.

Please send Senator Mary Jo Wilhelm a "thank you" for stopping the closing of Luster Heights. You can reach her by email at mary.jo.wilhelm@legis.state.ia.us or by calling the Iowa Senate switchboard at (515) 281-3371.

In Solidarity,

Danny Homan President, AFSCME Iowa Council 61
